To whom it may concern: I am writing this letter in regards to my case being dismissed and the absence of an required authorization form. I had sent authorization form to the agency hold^{ing} me business office and they never returned said authorization form. Because I could not return the authorization in a timely basis my case was dismiss for lack of stating a remedy sought. I was informed by attorney that I had a good case and that it was not frivolous. I am praying that the Honorable Court will take my delay and delimma of my Case to be reopened and taken into consideration. I am no expert in the Law yet ignorance on my part is no excuse. I thank you in advance for assistance, time, and patience.

I pray that this was of no inconvenience to you. Please respond to my letter at your earliest convenience.
